The Bluebirds won to-day's game, but they owe it to Dundon, who in the third inning missed an easy pop-fly, which ailowed two men to score. The game was a Nery poor one as far as the Farmers were concerned, as it was an off-day for Dundon, who, not satisfied with making an error that cost two runs, piled errors up, making four in all. The game was, nevertheless, an interesting one, and when the ninth inning was started Petersburg was In the lead by one run. Gilpatrick fouled out to Kane, and Kain flew out to Bradley; Sanford hit a slow one to Kane, which he fumbled, and Sanford went to third on Groves's single to right centre, Graves going to second on the throw to Sanford at third. Pender hit a line drive over third base, bringing in Sanford and Groves, and the game was

Will Play Here To-Day.

The Bluebirds, after adding another vic-tory to their list, returned to the city last night, and this afternoon they will begin a series of games with the Roanoke Goats. The last games played here between the Richmond and Roanoke clubs were all on the heart-disease order, and the game this the heart-disease order, and the game this afternoon will no doubt prove of great interest. It will be called at 4:45 o'clock.

Mr. John C. Smail, the league secretary, returned from Washington yesterday, where he signed Umpire Mace to become a member of the official staff here. Mace was a pitcher in this league two years ago, but has been umpiring ever since, and is said by Nick Young to be a good one. Cline will undoubtedly be made chief of staff.

Richmond is now some distance ahead of Portsmouth and Norfolk, and there is every probability of the Bluebirds finishing he first half in second place.

The Christoforo Colombo band, which has been discoursing sweet music during the games lately, will be present to-day. They have proven mascots for Richmond.

ACCIDENTS.

Mr. Claude King escaped a horrible death late yesterday afternoon at the factory of the American Tobacco Company. While he was putting up some shafting a screw caught his clothing, and he was jerked around the shafting. His right leg was broken in a number of places, and physicians, who were speedily summoned, and made a partial examination, are uncertain as yet as to whether his leg will have to be amputated.

Levoy Sherron and a son of adred Beck were out hunting near here, and the gun of Sherron. Was accidentally discharged, the load entering the side of Beck, There is no hope of his recovery.

When it rains the water soaks into the roof-bricks but does not begin to drip down into the rooms below until the rain is over. Then the family moves out until the water is through with its dripping. I saw an adobe house in Sante Fe which was built in the sixteenth century and, so far as I could see, the walls were as strong and good as any house around

"Walls are built of stone, plastered "Walls are built of stone, plastered with adobe cement, if I may so call it, and such walls are strong and solld. I suppose if that country had half as much rain as falls in Chicago, the 'dobe houses would, after a time crumble away, but the average year in New Mexico is made up of of 187 days of unclouded sky, 129 days when sunshine predominates, and only 39 days of cloud, so that the rainfall does not amount to much mass there.

Double Tragedy in Florida.

DADE CITY, FLA., June 10,-A DADE CITY, FLA., June 10.—A shooting affray occurred in the woods between Lacoochee and Trilby yeatorlay, in which Drayton McKinney and C. J. Raulerson lost their lives. It appears that McKinney charged Raulerson with a criminal offence; went to see Justice-of-the-Peace George Pinkston relative to a warrant for Raulerson's arrest, and found him in the woods. While they were talking Raulerson rode up, also, to see the Justice relative to threats he had heard, McKinney spoke to him, saying "Good" tice relative to threats he had heard. Mc-Kinney spoke to him, saying "Good morning," and at the same time throw-ing up his rife and sending a ball through Raulerson's body. Raulerson at once returned the fire with a shotgun, shoot-ing McKinney through the head. McKin-ney died in three hours, and Raulerson and the proprints. died this morning.
